To whom it may concern

Magnus Christoffersen

Magnus Christoffersen is a shining bright talent in the Royal Danish Ballet.

Early on in Magnus' career, he has taken on both corps de ballet parts as well as soloist roles with outstanding excellence. As a dancer he is extremely versatile and it goes without saying that he of course is highly professional. He is for sure a fine example of the Royal Danish Ballet School where he received his early training and education. Magnus Christoffersen carries in that way the legacy and the proud tradition of the world renowned Royal Danish Ballet. He is an excellent partner and has an astute and precise musicality in his very powerful dancing.

It is my utmost pleasure to sign this recommendation of Magnus Christoffersen.

Yours sincerely

Nikolaj Hübbe
